Highland Memorial Fountain Service

The Highland Memorial Fountain was erected by the Highland Society of New Brunswick at Miramichi on September 29, 1984. It is located in Elm Park, 170 Duke Street, across from the St. Andrew’s

United Church. The monument honors those hardy Scottish Pioneers who settled in the Miramichi area. The many benefits brought about by their foresight and ability in the fields of lumbering, shipbuilding and fishing are being enjoyed by all Canadians to this day. Following the Memorial Service the United Church Women will serve a lunch at the church.
